

"Character Compromised" | David H. McKinley, Speaker

"Character isn't inherited. One builds it daily by the way one thinks and acts, thought by thought, action by action. If one lets fear or hate or anger or greed or lust take possession of the mind, they become self-forged chains."

"Every moral collapse begins with a private compromise."

"May the inner man and outer be one." —Socrates

[Proverbs 10:9]

1. How is Our Character Compromised?

- Unchecked Desires

[James 1:14-15]

[Hebrews 11:24-26]

[Proverbs 5:3-12]

"The greater the man, the greater the price he pays for a short season of sinful pleasure." —Chuck Swindoll

- Unwise Decisions

[1 Corinthians 10:12-13]

- Unseen Attitudes and Actions

2. Have You Considered the Cost of Compromise?

When you compromise your character...

- You Lose Your Credibility
- You Risk Your Family
- You Subvert God's Purpose

3. How Can We Recover When Character is Compromised?

[Psalm 51:17]

- Honesty: Acknowledge Your Reality

"The truth will set you free, but first it will make you miserable." —James A. Garfield

- Humility: Change Your Posture

- Responsibility: Own Your Mistakes and Seek Restitution

"Forgiveness does not change the past, but it does enlarge the future." —Paul Boese

- Consistency: Establish New Habits

"We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act but a habit." —Will Durant

- Accountability: Seek Support
