Notes:

"Aim at nothing and you'll hit it every time."

"How do you measure success? To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a redeemed social condition, or a job well done; to know even one other life has breathed because you lived—this is to have success." —Ralph Waldo Emerson

Notes:

[2 Peter 1:3-9 (The Message)]

2. Remember to Start Each Day With a Focus on the Inner Man

"Win your mornings and you change your life. Begin each day with quiet thoughtful reflection, prayer, and an open Bible. Most people lose the day before it begins. Jesus first for peace, perspective, and purpose." —Jack Graham
